Are You a Student Interested in Land and Water Reclamation? Apply now for an American Society of Mining and Reclamation (ASMR) Memorial Scholarship!

ASMR is a professional organization dedicated to reclamation of land and water disturbed by mining and other activities.

ASMR Scholarship recipients receive:
- Complimentary annual membership,
- National meeting registration,
- Plaque, and
- Cash award
  - Bachelors: $750
  - Masters: $1000
  - Doctoral: $1500
- Applications from member and non-member students encouraged.

Application packets must include:
- Completed application form
- Letter from the applicant outlining education and career goals
- Three reference letters (with two academic, including one from advisor)
- College transcripts
- Resume
- Go to http://www.asmr.us
- Apply by March 31, 2013 to be considered for presentation at the 2013 Meeting in Laramie, WY
- For more info, email: Robert W. Nairn, Ph.D.
  ASMR Scholarship Chair
  nairn@ou.edu

ASMR Scholarships are open to students who are applying for their first bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree. Scholarships are offered to both member and non-member students.

Cash awards for scholarship recipients:
- Bachelor’s: $750
- Master’s: $1000
- Doctoral: $1500

Applications from member and non-member students are encouraged.

ASMR Scholarships are open to students who are applying for their first bachelor’s, master’s, or doctoral degree. Scholarships are offered to both member and non-member students.

Cash awards for scholarship recipients:
- Bachelor’s: $750
- Master’s: $1000
- Doctoral: $1500

Applications from member and non-member students are encouraged.

For more information, contact Robert W. Nairn, Ph.D., ASMR Scholarship Chair, nairn@ou.edu. Applications must be submitted by March 31, 2013.