The Université du Québec en Abitibi-Témiscamingue (UQAT) and the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (CIM), invite you to Rouyn-Noranda, Québec, Canada, to attend the Symposium 2015 on Mines and the Environment, from June 14 to 17, 2015.

The Symposium is the result of collaboration between the Research Institute on Mines and Environment (RIME) UQAT-Polytechnique, the Unité de recherche et de service en technologie minérale (URSTM) and many actors governments and mining companies.

The objectives of the Symposium are to share recent knowledge and research developments and to discuss common practices to find solutions that reconcile profitability and environmental protection.

SUNDAY, JUNE 14: SHORT COURSES

MONDAY, JUNE 15 & TUESDAY, JUNE 16:
TECHNICAL PROGRAM ADDRESSING THE FOLLOWING SUBJECTS:

- Tailings • Underground Backfill • Sterile Rocks
- Prediction of Water Quality • Water Treatment
- Sites Restoration • Regulations/Society
- Innovation (New Trends)

Simultaneous translation will be available from French to English / English to French

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17: SITE TOURS

For more information, contact:
Nadia Bakka (CIM): 514-939-2710, 1333, Nbakka@cim.org

Information will be available in the CIM publications and visit our web site for more details (accessible soon) at:

ROUYN-NORANDA2015.CIM.ORG